

Early Childhood Education SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The Early Childhood Council for Yuma, Washington, and Kit Carson Counties understands the importance of early childhood education and has developed a scholarship program to support this career path. Our scholarship is for a graduating high school senior living in Kit Carson, Washington, or Yuma Counties who is going into the field of early childhood education. There will be one (1) $1,000 scholarship awarded per county. Priority will be given to people who are going to attend Morgan Community College or Northeastern Junior College in the Fall of 2022. Successful applicants will complete entire application, attach a high school transcript, essay, one letter of recommendation, and submit to their guidance counselor by February 15, 2022. Notification of awards will be made by April 1, 2022. Awarded funds will be payable to the applicants college and only after official college enrollment has been received.
