

Awards/Honors Programs

Information on scholarships is made available to students through the Guidance Counselor's office. Before any organization shall award honors or scholarships for any particular purpose, they shall be approved by the administration of the school. It is recommended too that the principals and faculty of the school work out an organized system of awards and qualifications for awards in the various extra-curricular activities of the schools.

Adopted: 6/17/80

Revised: 3/12/98